One Step Shy Of The Rainbow

Everyday I Wake Up To the Music

VERSE 1

The kind that plays inside my head
Searching for something
Just to come up short instead
I've been so lost, but im surviving
I keep moving toward my goal
Hoping to find
What always evades my soul
Seems so elusive
There's always a fork in the road
Don't know which way to go
Im always one step shy of the rainbow
Two steps out of my reach
Everyday I try to get closer
To the life I dream

3RD VERSE

Sometimes I think about the journey
And what I learned along the way
I hope I can find, my place in time, someday

PRE CHORUS

Seems so elusive
There's always a fork in the road
Don't know which way to go
Chor:
Im always one step shy of the rainbow
Two steps out of my reach
Everyday I try to get closer
To the life I dream
I hope a new day is coming....
Won der ing if it will be
What I imagined for so long
And if was meant for me
The time that it takes to get closer to
That's where I want to stay
All my life ive searched and had such patience
I keep on climbing to the top
But every time I get closer
My journey comes to a sudden stop
If theres away to get to that rainbow
I feel it in my vibe
With that vibe each day I look for that rainbow and come alive
Something amazing is comin
I just can't wait
Without anger hate and fear
All my life ive been waiting for happiness to prevail
Wondering when I will be created
Once I see the rainbow I know I cannot fail
